Lemon Bay High School
Plagiarism Contract (*)

1) I, _____, understand that plagiarism is equivalent to theft and fraud.

2) I have been educated about the meaning of plagiarism and understand the terms "direct quotation," "paraphrase," "summarize," "source acknowledgment," "attribution," and "Works Cited."

3) I know that copying words from print or internet sources without crediting the source constitutes plagiarism.

4) I understand that copying language generated by artificial intelligence, including ChatGPT, and presenting it as my own work is plagiarism.

5) I have learned ways to avoid plagiarism by always acknowledging the source of any borrowed passage, sentence, image, or key idea that I use in my own writing. I will put language copied from any source (including electronic sources) into quotation marks and acknowledge the author. If I paraphrase or summarize published language, I will give credit to the author, even if I change the words.

6) I will never present someone else's work as my own, nor will I provide work for someone else.

Additional information for AICE Global Perspectives & Research students:

- AI must be declared and clearly explained in publications such as research papers, just as scholars do with other software, tools and methodologies.
- AI does not meet the Cambridge requirements for authorship, given the need for accountability. AI and LLM tools may not be listed as an author on any scholarly work published by Cambridge.
- Any use of AI must not breach Cambridge's plagiarism policy. Scholarly works must be the author's own, and not present others' ideas, data, words or other material without adequate citation and transparent referencing.
- Authors are accountable for the accuracy, integrity and originality of their research papers, including for any use of AI.
